Three Against One

The solitary, defenseless male is Fredric March, star of Paramount's "Death Takes a Holiday," coming on Sunday and Monday, April 15, 16 to the Torrance Theatre. In the bevy of beauties are Evelyn Venable, featured player, Katharine Alexander and Gail Patrick.

Mad Stampede of Wild Horses

When 250 horses are stampeding, one needs plenty of room to get out of their way—particularly if they're wild horses.

So Ken Maynard, star of "Strawberry Roan," which comes to the Torrance Theatre next Sunday and Monday, April 15 and 16, took his entire company to Kernville, California, 180 miles from Los Angeles, to film the stirring story released by Universal.

Maynard reported that five canyons, covering approximately 35,000 acres were used in making the stampede shots, which showed the wild horses running down gullies.

They drove directly into Maynard and Ruth Hall, his leading woman, Kernville not only offers negative ground in the form of vast, rolling plains with a mountainous background, but also the beautiful Kern river, clear as crystal, and great groves of pines at higher elevations.

His Heart Astray

Francis Lederer in "Man of Two Worlds," at the Lomita Theatre, Friday and Saturday, April 13 and 14. Tim McCoy in "Rusty Rides Alone" is also shown on these dates.

Ramona Pageant Opens April 21

Claudia Lightfoot, who will appear this year as Juanita, Spanish fiesta singer, in the eleventh annual Ramona Pageant, to be produced by a cast of nearly 200 players in the famous Ramona Bowl at Hemet, Saturday and Sunday afternoons, April 21 and 22, April 28 and 29, and May 5 and 6.

HEMET, April 5.—Announcement was made today by Edward Poorman, president and general manager of the eleventh annual Ramona pageant that Miss Claudia Lightfoot of Idyllwild has been selected for the role of "Juanita," the colorful Spanish soloist in the famous outdoor fiesta scene of the famous outdoor play to be presented by the people of Hemet and San Jacinto as a community enterprise Saturday and Sunday afternoon, April 21 and 22, April 28 and 29 and May 5 and 6. Miss Lightfoot was selected for the solo role following an audition held in the Ramona Bowl and participated in by more than a score of Southern California vocalists. She was chosen for the volume as well as the quality of her voice, according to Miss Jessica Webber, music supervisor of the Ramona play.

Other soloists in the play this year will be Ed Newman, concert baritone, who will sing the inspirational "Invocation to the Sun" from a point on the topmost rim of the amphitheater, and Viola Ellis Walker, operatic contralto, who will sing "Majella, the Wood Dove," a song especially written for the Ramona pageant by Mrs. Berenice Van Loan Gaines, widely known composer.
